DONNIE DARR HEAD COACH

THIRD SEASON
KENT STATE '96

Donnie Darr became just the 10th head coach in the 89-year history of the Ohio State men's golf program when he was hired in June 2009. In his three years with the Scarlet and Gray, Darr has compiled a 261-176-4 record and has led the team to successful showings at the NCAA Regional and NCAA Championship tournaments.

During the 2011-12 season, Darr guided the Buckeyes to two regular-season tournament victories (Marshall Invitational, Wildcat Invitational) with lineups that consisted primarily of underclassmen. Ohio State made its 45th appearance at the NCAA Central Regional, playing in Ann Arbor and finishing 12th overall.

Senior Alex Redfield earned PING All-Midwest Region honors for his efforts on the year that included a first-place finish at the Marshall Invitational. Freshman Grant Weaver became just the second Buckeye overall and the first under Darr to be named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

In his second year at the helm of the Buckeye program, Ohio State reached its first NCAA tournament under Darr and made its 31st appearance overall following a fourth-place finish at the NCAA West Regional. A sixth-place finish in stroke play secured a spot in the match play portion of the championship for the Scarlet and Gray. The Buckeyes fell to host Oklahoma State in the first round, 1-3-1. Ohio State posted a 121-50-0 tournament record on the season and captured first in two tournaments (Marshall Invitational, FAU Spring Break Championship).

During his first season with the Buckeyes, the team gained plenty of experience in a season that brought success to many of the golfers while posting a 70-58-2 tournament record. The Buckeyes posted three runner-up finishes throughout the year, including twice in the final month of competition.

Darr returned to his home state from national powerhouse Oklahoma State, where he served as assistant coach from 2006-09. While with the Cowboys, the team extended their record of consecutive NCAA Championship appearances while placing fourth in 2008 and advancing to the match play portion of the event in 2009 after leading the field in stroke play.

Each of those seasons, Darr helped Oklahoma State nab the top recruiting classes in the nation. Among them were Rickie Fowler, the 2008 College Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year and a two-time First Team All-America honoree now on the PGA Tour and a member of the United States' 2010 Ryder Cup team. Darr also recruited Morgan Hoffmann, the 2009 Freshman of the Year, First Team All-America selection and the Big 12 Player and Newcomer of the Year.

Prior to Oklahoma State, Darr gained experience as the head coach at the University of Akron in 2005-06. During his season with the Zips, he began to rebuild the program and ended the team's nine-year tournament victory drought.

A 1996 Kent State graduate, Darr began his coaching career at his alma mater. He was the assistant coach for the men's and women's golf teams in 2001-02, and was promoted to associate head coach of both programs from 2002-04. Darr also served as assistant coach at the University of Oklahoma during the 2004-05 season.

A standout golfer with the Golden Flashes, Darr was a four-time First Team All-Mid-American Conference honoree from 1993-96 and was chosen as the MAC Sportsman of the Year in 1996. He earned Third Team All-America honors as a junior and also received the Merle Wagoner Award as a senior, given to Kent State's outstanding senior male athlete. Darr was inducted into Kent State's prestigious Varsity "K" Hall of Fame in 2004.

After college, Darr toured as a professional golfer for one season (1997-98) before serving four years as an assistant golf professional in northeast Ohio at Windmill Lakes Country Club in Ravenna and Lakewood Country Club in Westlake.

Darr and his wife, Tina, also a Kent State graduate, are the parents of 8-year old triplets Allie, Anna and Leo as well as their 6-year old daughter, Lucy.

ON OHIO STATE'S TRADITION AND ALUMNI:

"I am all about embracing the tradition at Ohio State. I want to get all the former players involved. I'd love to have them come back and spend time with our players. The more time you can spend around people who are excellent at what they do, the more it will help you."

ON COACHING:

"As a coach, I'm a pretty good motivator, good communicator, laid back and like to have a lot of fun, but I'm extremely competitive when it's time to compete. The most important thing you have to do is communicate with your kids. They have to trust you and know you care about them. If they know that you believe in them and care about what is best for them, they are going to play hard for you. Playing hard is all I can ask of them."

ON THE SCARLET COURSE AND OTHER COLUMBUS AREA COURSES:

"It's a huge advantage to have a great home golf course. We're very fortunate to have Scarlet as our home course, but if you take it a step further than that and think about the golf courses that are near us – you have Scioto right around the corner, Muirfield, the Golf Club, Double Eagle and the list goes on. So we have a huge advantage over a lot of schools because we have access to so many quality golf courses."

ON SCHEDULING:

"You'll find as I am here over the years you'll see that the way I schedule tournaments is based on the best golf courses we can play against the best competition. That is how you become a great player. If you don't play against good competition on good golf courses and win a bunch of tournaments, you get to the postseason and you're playing against the big boys and haven't seen the types of courses you are playing, it's going to back fire."

RYAN POTTER ASSISTANT COACH

SECOND SEASON
FURMAN, '05

Ryan Potter was named assistant coach with the Ohio State men's golf team in August 2010. Potter came to the Buckeyes after two years as an assistant coach at the University of Mississippi and a year as a volunteer coach at the University of Alabama. He is a second generation golf coach as the son of Alabama women's golf coach Mic Potter.

In his second year at Ohio State, Potter assisted the team to its second-straight national postseason bid as the squad earned a spot in the NCAA Central Regional field. The Buckeyes finished 12th in the tournament. Throughout the regular season, Ohio State captured a pair of tournament titles (Marshall Invitational, Wildcat Invitational) and had two individual medalists in Alex Redfield and Matt Turner.

During his first season the Buckeyes, Potter helped guide the team to its best finish at the NCAA Championships in 13 seasons as the Scarlet and Gray finished sixth in stroke play to advance to the match play portion of the 2011 NCAA Championships. Ohio State captured two tournament titles during the regular season (Marshall Invitational, FAU Spring Break Championship) and finished fourth at the NCAA West Regional.

Potter joined Ole Miss in 2008 and helped the Rebels to NCAA Regional appearances both seasons. Among the golfers he coached was 2010 First Team All-American Jonathan Randolph, who also was a First Team All-SEC and two-time PING All-South Region selection.

Prior to his time at Ole Miss, Potter spent the 2007 season as a volunteer coach for the Crimson Tide men's program, which ended the year ranked second in the nation. He assisted in all practices, helped coordinate the Crimson Tide Open fundraising tournament, assisted with the golf camps and helped in preparation for official and unofficial recruiting visits.

From June 2006 until joining Ole Miss, Potter was the assistant director of the First Tee of Tuscaloosa where he organized and set up practices for the youth program. He created and organized lesson plans for the Life Skills sessions of the program and ran practices and tournaments. In addition he put together and managed the Bridge Builders Tournament and the Benefit Tournament, which provides funds for the First Tee Program.

Potter, who interned at the American Junior Golf Association (AJGA), has been a golf camp instructor/counselor since 2005 for various camps, including the Mic Potter Golf Schools in Greenville, S.C., and Tuscaloosa, Ala. He also trained Special Olympians for the 2007 State Special Olympic Games in Alabama.

A four-year letterwinner at Furman University, Potter graduated with a degree in history and received his masters in sports management from Alabama in May 2008.

Potter and his wife, Sarah, reside in Columbus.

2011-12 YEAR IN REVIEW

Under the direction of third-year head coach Donnie Darr, the Ohio State men's golf team reached the NCAA postseason for the second year in a row as the Buckeyes concluded their season at the 2012 NCAA Regional in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The Scarlet and Gray posted a 70-68-2 tournament record while capturing two tournament titles during the year.

Leading the squad this year were the two seniors Alex Redfield and Dan Charen as well as the two freshmen in Boo Timko and Big Ten Freshman of the Year Grant Weaver. The four Buckeyes were in the starting lineup for 46 out of 48 possible tournament starts this season. Redfield recorded the low scoring average for the year at 74.38, which included nine rounds under par and three in the 60's.

Ohio State started the 2011-2012 season winning its second-consecutive Marshall Invitational (Sept. 12-13) and was led by Redfield who recorded the first individual tournament title of his career by firing a three-round total of 9-under 204. The Buckeyes tied for 10th at the Olympia Fields/Fighting Illini Invitational (Sept. 16-18) and followed with an 11th-place finish at the rain-shortened Inverness Intercollegiate (Sept. 27). The Scarlet and Gray rebounded as they hosted the Jack Nicklaus Invitational at Muirfield Village Golf Club (Oct. 10-11), finishing in second behind eventual NCAA champion Texas. The team went on to end the up and down fall campaign at the Isleworth Intercollegiate (Oct. 23-25) with a 15th-place finish.

The spring campaign started off on the right foot with a third-place finish at the Big Ten Match Play Championship (Feb. 10-11). Following a tough Puerto Rico Classic (Feb. 19-21), the Buckeyes rebounded with a second-place finish at the FAU Spring Break Championship (Mar. 23-25). The next event came in the hometown of Charen at the Wildcat Invitational hosted by Villanova University (Apr. 2-3). The Buckeyes captured their second title of the season led by Charen's fifth-place finish. Playing as an individual, junior Matt Turner captured the individual title making it two team titles and two individual titles for the Scarlet and Gray on the season. Returning home to Columbus, the team finished tied for fifth at the Robert Kepler Intercollegiate (Apr. 14-15) to wrap up the regular season.

The Buckeyes headed to the 2012 Big Ten Championship held on the Pete Dye course at French Lick Resort in French Lick, Ind., (Apr. 27-29) and came away with a ninth-place result. The squad was then sent up north to the NCAA Central Regional (May 17-19) in Ann Arbor, Mich., to compete for a spot at the NCAA Championship. It was a difficult tournament for the Scarlet and Gray who finished 12th at the Regional ending their season.

Ohio State has hosted the Robert Kepler Intercollegiate every year but one since the 1969 season. The Buckeyes welcomed 15 teams to this year's 43rd-annual Kepler Intercollegiate in April 2012 on the challenging par 71, 7,455-yard Scarlet Course at The OSU Golf Club, voted the top collegiate golf course in November 2009 by GolfChannel.com.

In 2007, the Kepler Intercollegiate returned to the Scarlet Course after breaking from it the year before while the course was being redesigned under the tutelage of golf legend Jack Nicklaus. The Scarlet Course has been the host course for the event 37 times in 40 years.

The tournament is named for the late Robert Kepler, who served as Ohio State's golf coach from 1938 until 1965.

Under Kepler, Ohio State built a golfing tradition which was enhanced by an NCAA team championship in 1945 and four NCAA individual championships. One of the later winners was Jack Nicklaus, now universally recognized as the greatest golfer the game has ever known.

Since its inception, the Kepler has been won by only 11 schools – Ohio State, Colorado, Indiana, Louisville, Northwestern, Kent State, Miami (Ohio), UNLV, Xavier, Eastern Michigan and Illinois.

The Buckeyes have hoisted the tournament champion trophy 23 times in the 43-year history of The Kepler Intercollegiate, including six-consecutive victories from 1974-79 and nine-consecutive from 1981-1989. Fellow Big Ten schools Northwestern and Indiana are tied for second-place in wins with four team victories each, while in-state rival Kent State has five team victories.

Ohio State has also taken individual medalist honors 20 times, with Brad Wright claiming the top prize in 2009.
